Message from the Commander, Jason Coffman

Confederate Patriots,

Fall is here already, the leaves are turning and it will be cold soon. The Hughes Camp needs to start planning for its Christmas Party this year already. As usual, we will skip the meeting in December and instead have the Christmas Party.

Three weeks ago, Saturday September 12th, Tim Borron and I went to the Outlaw Days in Richmond Missouri. Lanny Dixon, Dwayne Holtzclaw, Sam Stanton, John Malowski, Bob Green, and Chad Martin (Friend of the SCV) were there to help recruit and sell camp merchandise. We did well at selling camp merchandise. That night we went to the Buckner Tractor Pull that the Hughes Camp sponsored. Two weeks ago, Saturday September 19th, Tim Borron and I went to Calamity Jane Day in Princeton Missouri. Lee Everett met us there that morning and helped us recruit along with Chad Martin. We did very well with recruiting and selling merchandise. We recruited 2 to 3 potential new members for the SCV with one giving the necessary paperwork to join.

New camp member Lanny Dixon was recruiting for the Hughes Camp in Gallatin Missouri at the Daviess County Chautauqua Festival the same day. Lanny recruited close to 12 new potential new members and sold out of the camp merchandise Tim and I had dropped off to him early that morning.

There will be a new camp forming up in Northwestern Missouri soon I would think. Last Saturday, September 26th, Lee Everett was recruiting in Albany Missouri at the Gentry County Heritage Festival. DAR (Daughters of the American Revolution) and others told Lee that he could not display the Confederate flags. More Marxist Progressive crap from folks who are ignorant and to here that DAR was involved, of all organizations, you would think DAR would know. That specific Chapter of DAR should be named Daughters of the Marxist Philosophy DMP.

September 10th Camp Meeting...

Adjutant note! I am now getting desperate for final dues collections. Non paid members will lapse on Oct. 31. I have about 19 members who have yet to pay. If you could, hustle those into me as I'm sending our paid roster dues to HQ within the next 2 weeks. Honestly guys, I'm jacking with a lot of paperwork for Hughes Camp, plus the newsletter. I don't have time to call you. Writing a check is the only paperwork I'm asking you to do!

We did have a new Friends of the SCV sign up at the August meeting, his name is Chad Martin and he is a friend of Camp Member Jay Roberts. Chad loves the South and the ideas that made it glorious!

At the meeting, the camp did vote to give away 12 X 18 battle flags to kids at places we set up our booth. Several members donated money to help pay for the cause at the meeting to include: James Bradley, George Baker, Gordon Fristoe, and Steve Cockrell. Thanks for that guys- It's much appreciated! We'll get some kids out there waving our flags for us. Kids are attracted to that flag, it's a good way to help win them over.

Speaking of Gordon Fristoe, Gordon was in attendance at the meeting. Great to see him there and we hope that getting out will help him as he grieves over the loss of his wife, Barbara. We hope you're doing ok Gordon.

We have received from Headquarters Resolutions recognizing the service and passing of Frank Adams and John Tunks. We will send those to the respective family members.

Your lowly Adjutant, Larry Yeatman, had to pinch hit as a guest speaker at the meeting. I brought a sampling of relics that passed down to me and my brother from our Confederate Ancestors. I showed you two sabers used by relatives in the war, and a flower in a picture frame from General Lee's funeral, our GG Grandmother was a flower bearer at Lee's funeral, and she kept one of the flowers

Do not forget your camp dues and I will see you at the next meeting.

Breaking News... Commander Darrell Maples was informed today that the Shelby Monument in Waverly Missouri was vandalized, maybe last night. It has a bullet hole in it, and was spray painted. Darrell will be meeting with the Lafayette County Sheriff tomorrow and the Division plans on posting a $1000 reward for information leading to the arrest of the perp. If you would like to donate to that fund, email Darrell Maples at :

Commander, Hughes Camp 614

Editor note: Outrageous! The Shelby Monument is a high dollar monument and sits right beside the fire station there. How did the fireman not hear a gun shot and look outside?! We need to get the guys that did this. Hopefully if we dangle the reward money in front of his scumbag buddies they'll rat him out and he or they will land in jail.

One must ask, who are the real traitors of America? It is not difficult to identify liberals of the left wing. But beyond identification, to really know them, one must ascertain the objective of their agenda, the orchestration of their strategy, the coordination of their logistics, and most importantly, the source of their origin and inspiration. The best example of the society they envision for America is their establishment of fascism in Germany. Liberals, who are socialists, have sought since 1945 to distance themselves from fascism by calling it a right-wing movement, a deliberate obfuscation. Fascism was a left-wing socialist movement. Nazi is a name derived from Nationalsozialistische Deutsche Arbeiterpartei (National Socialist German Workers' Party).

The Bank of International Settlement, located in Basel, Switzerland, was established in 1930 as a bank for all central banks. Through it, a private group is able to manage a global system of financial control, enabling them to wield a dominating influence within the economies and politics of nations. As the banker Mayer Rothschild boasted, "Give me control of a nation's money and I care not who makes its laws." Meeting in a neutral country, bankers and businessmen from Britain and the US funneled money to the Nazis to support their regime and subsequently profit from a war through lucrative military-industrial contracts of which Eisenhower later warned.

Whether one calls them the Illuminati, Council On Foreign Relations, Trilateral Commission, Club Of Rome, Bilderbergers, Fabian Society, Royal Institute Of International Affairs, or Skull and Bones, the various heads of this Hydra all belong to the same body and "...they conspire with one accord..." (Ps. 83:5) The faces and names change over time, but the objective and methodology remain the same. The same force that ignited the French Revolution and established fascism in Germany moves within America today like the wind before an approaching storm, unseen except for its effects. The similarities between fascism and liberalism are too numerous to exhaust in this limited space. To cite one example, the gutter has become mainstream media under the domination of liberals. This encompasses not only TV as well as major newspapers, magazines, and book publishers, but also the entertainment industry, the internet, and advertising. Hitler said, "The art of leadership...consists in consolidating the attention of the people against a single adversary and taking care that nothing will split up that attention."

He focused that attention primarily on Jews. Using the media, liberals are focusing adverse attention on conservatives, especially those who strive to preserve, protect, and defend the traditional patriotic and moral structure of America. Thus, all things deemed to be conservative, orthodox Christian, and southern are defamed as being antiquated and antithetical to progress. Goebbels, the propaganda minister, advised, "Not every item of news should be published; rather must those who control news policies endeavor to make every item of news serve a certain purpose." A small group of easy-to-control wire services produces and sells news items to networks and newspapers. Editors control the flow of information reporters collect. Cheryl Atkinson, a reporter formerly seen on the CBS news, reportedly had her reports routinely rejected, was forced out of her job, and blackballed from her profession for refusing to report only those stories that conformed to a predetermined agenda. According to Atkinson, that agenda reflected a liberal, pro-BO bias. Goebbels said, "It is the absolute right of the state to supervise the formation of public opinion." Hitler remarked, "At a mass meeting thought is eliminated." In 21st-century America, the mass media has replaced the state and mass meetings to form public opinion. Instead of providing unbiased information enabling people to think for themselves and reach their own conclusions, the objective is to tell people what to think and condition their minds to arrive at predetermined conclusions. Consequently, we witness people who feel offended by something, not because they choose to be, but because they are told to be. Too many Americans, either too lazy, distracted, or preoccupied to think for themselves, follow the herd and imitate what they perceive to be popular among the masses at a given time.

Hitler boasted, "The one means that wins the easiest victory over reason: terror and force." Under the dictatorship of the left, liberals are not satisfied with having the right to be free to do as they please; they will not rest until they force others to do as they say. For example, lesbians in Oregon could have ordered a cake celebrating sodomy at numerous bakeries, but targeted a Christian bakery to establish a test case for the purpose of mass intimidation - the use of terror and force. Hitler stated, "A great politician has to bother himself less with means than with the goal." "Success is the sole earthly judge of right and wrong." "The victor will never be asked if he told the truth." If the end justifies the means and there is no recognized objective standard for justice, morality, historical facts, truth, the means used or the end sought, then terror and force become acceptable practices. To be continued next month...

from the funeral, pressed it, then put it in a picture frame. Her name was Eloise Watkins Haden. I also had Confederate Money, some is CS issued script, and others is script from banks, counties, States. All was from the family, none of it purchased or anything like that later. We have the letter that was sent to my Dad in 1952 when it was passed on to him, our Aunt said to be careful with it, as one day it would be worth a lot of money!

I have other artifacts I can show you in the future. We're just glad our family valued that stuff and it didn't get pitched in an estate along the way!

This is the picture frame containing what we call the Robert E. Lee flower. It has written on the back that Eloise Watkins Haden (Joel Haden's mother) was a flower bearer in Lee's funeral procession and kept this flower from the funeral. It just looks like an old dried up flower, but to us it's a prized possession.

This Saber belonged to our Uncle, Joel Watkins Haden, 1st Lt. Adjutant, 7th Virginia Cavalry. He was a fighting type adjutant as he had two horses killed from under him and was twice shot, the second time fatal. He was VMI class of 1856 and this saber was issued to him there. It's made by Ames Manufacturing, Chicopee, Massachusetts, who was the official supplier of swords and sabers to VMI and West Point. He used it thru out the war and this was on him when he was killed in a Cavalry charge while defending Petersburg, the Battle of Boyd Plank Road. He was part of the effort to keep Grant from encircling Petersburg and cutting off Lee's escape route. That was on October 17th 1864 and he died on November 19th. He is buried in our family cemetery in Haden Virginia.

Above and to the right I have the saber that belonged to Captain Albert Allmond Yeatman, Co. K, 11th Virginia Volunteers. His Company was called the Valley Regulators. Captain Yeatman carried this with him thru out the war. In 1863 he was hit in the head by a spent mini ball, which head injured him to some degree. He finished out the war in a home guard. This saber was caught in a house fire after the war, and the scabbard and hilt has had a black lacquer finish applied to it. I'm unsure of the manufacturer of the saber.

Shelby Monument vandalized

After 27 years of organizing and collecting money, the Monument to General J.O. Shelby was finally dedicated on June 27th, 2009. Many of us were there and those that were probably remember the sweltering heat.

And now, the vandals have been hard at work to vandalize it. It now has a bullet hole in it and has been spray painted. This behavior has been encouraged by those at the very top of leadership of this country. They certainly have done everything they can to stir things up, and for sure have not done anything to tamp it down. We have no words from any in Government telling people to cut this crap out. Could it be that they want this type of anarchy and civil unrest?

It sounds like the Missouri Division SCV will be posting a $1000 reward for information leading to the arrest of the perps.

Elkhorn Tavern, Pea Ridge, Arkansas

The reenactment of the Battle of Pea Ridge happened last weekend, Sept. 24-26. This also included a reenactment of the Battle of Elkhorn Tavern, which was a part of the overall Battle of Pea Ridge. That battle occurred on March 7th, 1862.
