Major General Patrick R Cleburne
March 17, 1828-November 30th, 1865

Patrick Cleburne was born in Ireland. In the 1840's he gained military experience when he enlisted in the 41st Foot of the British Army. In 1849 he purchased his release and moved to the US, where he settled in Helena, Arkansas. He earned his citizenship in 1855. He loved his new country and was active in the community. He practiced law there. In 1861 he enlisted in the Yell Rifles. He rose in ranks quickly to the rank of Major General. He was loved and respected by his men, and feared by his enemies. General Cleburne was killed while leading his troops in a frontal attack of a Federal entrenched position at the Battle of Franklin, TN, on November 30th, 1861

Message from the Commander, Jason Coffman

Confederate Patriots,

The Kansas City Royals won the World Series. That is the big news this past week. Other news is that Missouri division along with help, in part, from the Missouri and Virginia Flaggers is getting ready to put some flag poles up on major thoroughfares in our beloved Missouri state. It is in the works so keep an eye out for further information on that subject.

Our next meeting is Thursday November 12th where we will discuss the Hughes Camp Christmas Party in December. The SCV, in general is growing with membership which is positive. Of course I do not have to tell you why this is.

Mississippi state is having some problems. Apparently some young folks schooled in the philosophy of Karl Marx do not like the Mississippi state flag being flown at all of the state's schools of higher learning and voted to take the state flag down at Ole Miss in Oxford Mississippi state. The younger generation.....what can you say about them? My only opinion is for most, not all, will die violently without a fight if they keep going down the Karl Marx road to hell. As my Great Grandfather always said "The road to hell is paved with good intentions." Good intentions do not do fare very well if you do not understand the history of human nature.

Remember, as descendants of Confederate soldiers we are the owners and beneficiaries of a priceless artifact.....Our Southern Heritage. See you all at the next meeting.

Yours in the Bonds of Confederate Brotherhood,
Jason-Nathaniel: coffman

Camp Calendar

November 12th, 7:00 PM Camp Meeting Kross Lounge and Ernie's Restaurant 605 N Sterling Sugar Creek, MO 64054 816-254-9494. Our Speaker this month will be one of our own members, Thomas McConnell. Tom is an Ordained Minister and I'm sure he will give us some brim and firestone, although I do not have the title of his speech as of press time.

Br. Gen. John T Hughes

Note Big Change for November meeting! Ernie's restaurant called me a few weeks ago and told me they needed the meeting room for something else on November 12th, but they arranged for us to meet at the Moose Lodge across the street. So let's meet at 6 and eat at the restaurant, then we'll move across the street to the Moose Lodge at 7 pm for the meeting!

December ? Time ? Hughes Camp Christmas Party. I would say that December 5th or 12th are the likely dates. Pencil those in on your calendar!

April 8-9 Missouri Division SCV and Missouri Society MOSB Reunion. Isle of Capri Hotel, Booneville, MO. Mark your calendars. Registration details to follow in the future. Thought we'd give you a heads up on the date! Commander-in-Chief Kelly Barrow will be in attendance.

What's been happening on the Western Front..

October Camp Meeting...

Your lowly Editor and Adjutant was not at the October Camp meeting as he had...Playoff tickets to the Royals playoff game that night! Sorry, I scummed you to enjoy an exciting Royals moment.

So I wasn't there to give you a full report, but I do know that our scheduled speaker, Tom McConnell's car broke down on him that day and left him stranded so he did not make it to the meeting to be our speaker. At that late point, Jason had to wing it. He probably brought in some dancing girls to entertain you I hope!

Ok, moving forward, be sure to note the above schedule, where we are meeting at the Moose Lodge across the street from Ernie's Restaurant. We can still meet at 6 to eat at the restaurant, then move across the street for the 7 pm meeting. We've met over that before and it worked out fine. The restaurant did get that lined up for us when they realized they had a conflict with the meeting room and they gave me several weeks notice.

Next, we have several folks to swear in and or

Present Friends of the SCV Certificates to. If the following men could be present at the meeting that would be great,

Reed Simpson, Chad Martin, Marvin Hall, and John Jancek. Come on down men, you are the next contestants! Look forward to making you official in our Merry Band!

Last month I ran an article, that the Shelby Monument in Waverly had been vandalized. Well the next morning after I had gone to press, Darrell Mables sent out an update saying it maybe has not been vandalized. It's possible, that the damage is rust, where the statue has rusted thru in a place. I'll take rust over vandalism and sorry for the false alarm.

There will be no meeting in December as we'll do a Christmas Party instead. Hopefully we'll lock down the time date and place at the November meeting. I've already notified the Restaurant that we won't meet there in December but will be back in January. Larry Yeatman

Other news and Information

We have sent in dues for all those that have paid to Headquarters. Most all of us did renew but we do have about 10 that have not sent in their money yet. To all that sent them in timely, thank you very much, we really appreciate your continued support of the Camp, SCV, and most importantly, your history and heritage.

To those that have not sent in dues, we sure would like to have you send those in still. We'll get you reinstated no problem. Your membership is important, as the only way we can grow is if we can keep members on the books, then add new people from there.

The truth is, we need to grow by leaps and bounds if we are to be able to get the politicians attention. We need to become a voting block force, equal to the NRA. Only then, will we be able to properly defend our heritage. To paraphrase SCV Commander-in-Chief Kelly Barrow said, in the current Confederate Veteran, the SCV is going to have to transform into something other than what it's been. We can no longer conduct business as we have in the past.

The NAACP is currently compiling a data base of all Confederate Monuments, school names, roads, parks and Military bases, that are named after Confederates. Have no doubt, they are going for complete removal and renaming of all things Confederates. They have declared war on us.

Your Membership is more important now than ever!

Chaplain's Corner, Hughes Camp Chaplain Richard W Rudd

In 1938, Kristallnacht began a reign of terror, vandalism, and persecution. Businesses, synagogues, homes, and people were victimized. The excuse used to spark Kristallnacht was the killing of a German diplomat, Ernst von Rath, by Henchel Grynszpan, who acted alone in retaliation for anti-Semitic atrocities in Germany. Approximately three fourths of a century before Kristallnacht, Yankee thugs established the precedent for later SS and SA tactics by burning homes and businesses, looting possessions, and assaulting southern civilians. Before the atrocities committed in the infamous Nazi concentration camps, Confederate POW soldiers were systematically starved, left to freeze, denied medical care, tortured, and killed in Yankee prison camps. Today, abortion mills systematically commit infanticide, deal in body parts for research, and engineer the development and growth of the population in ways that Dr. Josef Mengele would find agreeable. Recently, a furious attack has been unleashed against Confederate symbols and the excuse is the same as the one given for Kristallnacht - murder committed by a lone assailant.

In 21st-century America, there exist among us those who would commit the same infamous deeds done under the Nazi regime. All they lack is the opportunity. The only effective restraint against that opportunity is the influence of the Holy Spirit and moral precepts of a church composed of faithful Christians. But, that is changing. Fascism in Germany was made possible in part by the incursion of liberalism into Christian theology and the church, beginning in late 19th century Europe. Sin came to be explained by secular psychology as a mere aberration of natural causes. The ranks of the clergy were infiltrated by those akin to agnostics. The Bible was dismissed as an unreliable collection of poetry and historical anecdotes. Christ, if He ever existed, was portrayed at best as a mortal ethical teacher. This all sounds similar to the so-called Jesus Seminar of today, resetting the stage for Act II of fascism, this time to be played out on the American stage.

Hitler once commented, "One who interprets National Socialism merely as a political movement knows almost nothing about it. It is...the determination to create a new man." He planned for the day when he could see the wild beast leap from the eyes of the Aryan Ubermensch (superman). Research in the 21st century seeks to develop a super soldier, hybrid humans, and enhanced mental capabilities with the use of genetic manipulation, implants, and other technology. Ultimately, the world will witness the reproduction of the Nephilim. (Gen. 6:4) William James, a psychologist, taught, "Repeat a lie often enough and people will believe it." Hitler added, "The great masses of the people...will more easily fall victims to a big lie than to a small one." A big lie incessantly repeated is the theory of evolution produced by Darwin, who was influenced by Hinduism and reincarnation from India. If one refuses to accept the account of creation in Genesis, a substitute explanation is required. It incorporates the humanistic belief that man can achieve perfection for himself and the world by degrees of initiation into the esoteric realm and incremental advances. This process also applies to social issues. Tobacco, an addiction, is leading to the legalization of smoking marijuana. Legalization of miscegenation has led to the legalization of sodomy and the legalization of polygamy is rising on the horizon. Legalization of infanticide (abortion) is leading to the legalization of euthanasia which will imitate Nazi legislation that was entitled Law For The Destruction Of Lives That Are Not Worth Living. The world's dream of a superman and race mocks and opposes God's plan which proclaims, "Therefore, if one is in Christ, he is a new creation..." (II Cor. 5:17)

Throughout history, the left has sought to create its own golden era called the Golden Dawn. In the 18th century, the Age of Reason, promoted by pseudo-intellectuals in Europe, challenged traditional authority, especially Christianity. Its promise was that reason applied to secular knowledge could bring man perfection and bliss. There is a critical difference between reason and rationalization. The crowning achievement of the Age of Rationalization was the bloody French Revolution. In the 20th century, at a book-burning rally, Goebbels shouted, "The past is lying in flames. The future will rise from the flames within our hearts." "These flames...light up a new era..." That new era was to have been the thousand-year reich. After WWII, the reich was in ashes. Beginning in the 1960's, astrologers proclaimed that the earth's rotation through the zodiac had reached the New Age of Aquarius. Again, emphasis is placed on secular rationalization and diverted away from God to man, away from Christianity and truth to secular philosophy and science, creating a false antithesis between components that are compatible. When used properly as intended, science makes discoveries, philosophy raises questions about those discoveries, and theology provides the answers. That is why theology is referred to as queen of the sciences. Using a holistic approach, New Agers see man evolving through a process of becoming a citizen of the world under a one-world government and one with nature and the universe. The truth is, 21st-century man is not evolving into the Golden Dawn of a New Age of Aquarius; he is devolving into a new Dark Age of acrimony. Holy Scripture calls its culmination the Great Tribulation. (Dan. 12:1, Rev. 7:14)
